Do you want to learn about Psychology?

Are you interested in Human Development?

Do you enjoy hands-on learning experiences?

If you answered, YES, then you should check out the FRCC Psychology Department Annual Psychology Conference:

PSY FRIDAY

FRIDAY, MAY 3rd from 8:30am – 12:00pm

Current FRCC Psychology students and prospective Psychology students are invited to join the FRCC Psychology Department for a morning full of breakout sessions on topics such as:

- The human lifespan
- The effects of alcohol intoxication on the brain
- Funeral home work
- Mental health and suicide
- Wellness
- A “meet and greet” with FRCC Psychology students & faculty
- Campus Tours
- FRCC admissions and enrollment assistance
- Financial aid/scholarships information
- Information on the transfer admissions to area 4-year institutions

If you have any questions, Janelle Bonavida, Admissions and Outreach Representative, at janelle.bonavida@frontrange.edu.

Please register by Wednesday, May 1st! PSY FRIDAY REGISTRATION
